

Minor Model Release / Video Permission

Introduction

To create a library of brief videos on youth leadership, ExpertOnlineTraining.com is collecting amateur submissions for educational use. The US-based company, CampSpirit, LLC, will partner with a Canadian technology company, Target Directories Corp., to upload these videos for youth leaders and parents. No compensation for participation will be provided. Participation is voluntary.

About the Videos

The videos may depict children and adults interacting in a variety of typical summer program, household, and school-based scenarios. They may also illustrate some atypical scenarios, such as peer conflict and instructional challenges. These online video training modules are designed to enhance the training that staff receive.
